

Position: Avionics Technician

Description:

Troubleshoots repairs, inspects, modifies and services aircraft avionics, electrical and electronic equipment. Performs and documents all work per appropriate manuals and regulations as required.

Responsibilities:

- Must be able to obtain and maintain an Airport Security Badge through Houston Hobby Airport.
- Performs a variety of mechanical/electrical removals and installations along with complex repairs on various aircraft systems.
- Performs the functional testing required to isolate a customer complaint in a particular avionics system and repairing that aircraft system in accordance with FAA procedures.
- Based on in-flight analysis and/or evaluation of information received from customer, diagnoses problems and takes corrective action.
- Returns aircraft to service after maintenance at off-site locations (if certified).
- Assist with maintenance at off-site locations
- Assist in complete engine and or APU runs.

Ideal Candidate:

- 3+ years of Avionics Experience
- Owns basic set of hand tools with the ability to demonstrate inventory and control of tools
- Ability to read and understand electrical engineering drawings
- Willing to work in a team-based atmosphere
- Experience in troubleshooting
- Willing to Travel as necessary
- Willing to work overtime for AOG jobs as necessary

Preferred Qualifications:

- A&P License
- Previous AOG experience
- Experience on corporate jet aircraft